How to Locate a Claim.

To make a quartz location after July 1, the prospector must sink a hole at least ten feet deep in solid formation, must have at least one defined wall and must stake his ground so that the stakes can be found.
The notice of location must be placed conspicuously at the discovery shaft, where it can be seen—not on some stump of tree in the neighborhood. He is allowed ninety days to do this work. If he relocates an old prospect hole he is required to sink it ten feet deeper than when he first found it and takes and records it the same as though it was an original discovery. If he runs a tunnel it must be at least ten feet long, so as to determine the fact that a vein supposed to carry the precious metals has been discovered.—The Mining Review.

out the children and also a few prizes for their benefit.

The committee requests all that have no means of getting to Highland, to be at the school house at nine o'clock sharp.

The Barbecue will take place at eating time.

the place and has the same tastefully arranged. He has fixed up a nice bowery so that all who go will be assured a good time.

Mr. Stewart McAnish sent in word that the calf he would furnish would tickle the palate of the daintiest epicurean and if the garishments will be in proportion, all will

LAMOND WOODS.

Dated, Pioche, Nevada, June 26th, 1895.

TO THE PUBLIC!

After a business career of nearly a quarter of a century in Pioche, I have at last concluded to retire from the field, which has become too contracted and dull to support a first-class hardware establishment. In order to close out my remaining stock as fast as possible, I have reduced prices from 10 to 50 per cent below actual cost.
I particularly invite the trade, merchants and dealers, who may want to add, or increase their stock with a desirable line of hardware, at figures that will satisfy the closest buyer, anyone in need of Hardware, Tools, Cutlery, Fire-arms, Hardwood and Wagon Material, Kitchen and House Furnishing Goods, etc., will find this a rare opportunity. To those who owe accounts and notes, I will say that if they wish to avoid trouble and costs, they come forward within 30 days and pay up, or make satisfactory arrangement for an extension of time, this is a final notice to all without exception.
